

THE 321ST INFANTRY

OPERATIONS OF THE 321ST INFANTRY NOVEMBER 11, 1918.

At 2:30 a. m. (2½ hours) the Commanding Officer, 321st Infantry, received at the same time Field Orders No. 7, 81st Division, and Field Orders No. 3, 161st Infantry Brigade, ordering attack at 6:00 a. m. (6 hours), after artillery preparation. The brigade order called for advance by the First and Third Battalions to their fronts, and for the moving up of the Second Battalion from Chatillon to Moranville during the night, to attack at the same hour, pushing into the interval between the First Battalion and the three companies of the 322d Infantry on its left.

Forces at the Disposal of Commanding Officers, 321st Infantry.

As the result of divisional and brigade orders the Commanding Officer, 321st Infantry, had at his command the following troops:

First, Second, Third Battalions, Machine Gun Company, Headquarters Company, Supply Company, 321st Infantry.

Two Companies, A and C, 317th Machine Gun Battalion assigned respectively to First and Second Battalions, 321st Infantry.

Two Battalions 306th Engineers, Companies E and F 306th Ammunition Supply Train.